It has been determined by the parties in interest to pass the above highly valuable corner over to a new owner before July 1, 1921. This has been fully agreed upon for the purpose of closing up the estate and dividing the proceeds arising therefrom among those thereto entitled. As a consequence the price of same has been greatly reduced. Call in early Monday morning and close the deal with

EVERYONE WHO VISITS

"THE PLATEAU"

Only Twelve Minutes from Seventh and Broad Streets

Will be impressed with the wonderful future assured these Homesites.
Prices in this wonderful Home Place are attractive and terms most reasonable.

No Interest. Easy Terms.

Sewerage, sidewalks, shade trees, homes, wide avenues, grand surroundings, high elevation, churches, school, water, stores, best of trolley service and only twelve minutes from Seventh and Broad Streets.

AS A RENTER

Time flies swiftly by, leaving you at the end with nothing but rent receipts, worthless except as a testimony to your lack of foresight. Of course you have supplied the roof, but has it been really home?

READ CAREFULLY

You are paying $20 to $40 per month rent—possibly more or less.
Seven to ten years from now you have paid out in rent $2,000 to $5,000.

WHAT TO DO

Buy a site in this beautiful, rapidly growing property, arrange to build a cozy, comfortable home, move into it—your own home. Then the fight is more than half over.

The payments are easier than rent would be, for every dollar goes to pay for a part of the home you are living in, and when the years roll by and the payments (like rent) are all made, then—the victory is yours.

Surely this appeals to you; you know the truth when you see it. Will you act and act now? Come to-day.

All cars transfer at Seventh and Broad Streets to cars marked Highland Park, which pass this magnificent addition. Get off at Victor Street and Fourth Avenue. Salesmen on ground daily, 2 to 6 P. M.
